Privacy Notice for Students (How we use student information)

You have a legal right to be informed about how the school uses any personal information that we hold about you. To comply with this, we provide a “Privacy Notice” to you where we are processing your personal data.

This Privacy Notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about you.

We, Rise Carr College, are the “data controller” for the purposes of data protection law.

Our Data Protection Officer is IT Systems and is contactable via Phone: 0843 8868660, Email: dpo@itsystems.uk.net

The personal data we hold:

We hold some personal information about you to make sure we can help you learn and look after you at the school.

For the same reasons, we get information about you from some other places too – like other school and Academy’s, the Local Council and Government.

This information includes:

- Your contact details.
- Your test results.
- Your attendance records.
- Your characteristics, like your ethnic background or any special educational needs.
- Any medical conditions you have.
- Details of any behaviour issues or Exclusions.
- Photographs and Video.
- CCTV images.

We use this data:

We use this data to help run the school, including to:

- Get in touch with you and your parents / carers when we need to.
- Check how you’re doing in exams and work out whether you or your teachers need any extra help.
- Track how well the school is overall performing.
- Look after your wellbeing.

Use of your personal data for filtering and monitoring purposes

- While you’re in our school, we may monitor your use of our information and communication systems, equipment and facilities (e.g. school computers). We do this so that we can:
- Comply with health and safety and other legal obligations
- Comply with our policies (e.g. child protection policy, IT acceptable use policy) and our legal obligations
- Keep our network(s) and devices safe from unauthorised access, and prevent malicious software from harming our network(s)

Our legal basis for using this data:

We will only collect and use your information when the law allows us to. Most often, we will use your information where:

- We need to comply with the law.
- We need to use it to carry out a task in the public interest (to provide you with an education).

Sometimes, we may also use your information where:

- You or your parents / carers have given us permission to use it in a certain way.
- We need to protect your interests (or someone else's interest).

Where we have got permission to use your data, you or your parents / carers may withdraw this at any time. We will make this clear when we ask for permission and explain how to go about withdrawing consent.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using your information overlap, and there may be several grounds which mean we can use your data.

Collecting this information:

While in most cases you, or your parents / carers, must provide the personal information we need to collect, there are some occasions when you can choose whether to provide the data.

We will always tell you if it is optional. If you must provide the data, we will explain what might happen if you do not.

How we store this data:

We will keep personal information about you while you are a student at our school. We may also keep it after you have left the school, where we are required to by law.

We have a Data Retention Policy which sets out how long we must keep information about students. There is a copy of the policy published on the school's website, alternatively a paper copy is available from the Data Protection Officer.

Data sharing:

We do not share personal information about you with anyone outside the school without permission from you, your parents / carers, unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Where it is legally required, or necessary for another reason allowed under data protection law, we may share personal information about you with:

- Our Local Authority – to meet our legal duties to share certain information with it, such as concerns about student safety and Exclusions.
- The Department for Education (a government department) – to meet our legal duties such as concerns about Safeguarding, Exclusions and outcomes for students.
- Your family and representatives – to meet our legal duty to provide parents / carers with an annual report on your academic achievements.
- Educators and examining bodies – to enable us to sit public examinations and undertake controlled assessments.
- Our regulator (the organisation or “watchdog” that supervises us e.g. Ofsted).

- Suppliers and service providers – so that we can provide the services we have contracted them for:
- Central and Local Government – to meet our legal duties in relation to Safeguarding and funding.
- Survey and research organisations – to ensure that we have access to the latest research to improve your outcomes.
- Health Authorities – to ensure that you have access to appropriate Health & Wellbeing services.
- Health & Social Welfare organisations – to allow you to access specific support as and when required e.g. Young Carers.
- Police Forces, courts, tribunals to meet our legal obligations in relation to Safeguarding.

National Student Database:

We are required to provide information about you to the Department for Education (a government department) as part of data collections such as the school census.

Some of this information is then stored in the National Student Database, which is managed by the Department for Education and provides evidence on how schools are performing. This, in turn, supports research.

The database is held electronically so it can easily be turned into statistics. The information it holds is collected securely from schools, exam boards and others.

The Department for Education may share information from the database with other organisations which promote children's education for wellbeing in England. These organisations must agree to strict terms and conditions about how they will use your data.

You will find more information about this on the Department for Education's webpage on how it collects and shares research data.

You can also contact the Department for Education if you have any questions about the database.

Youth Support Services:

Once you reach the age of 13, we are legally required to pass on certain information about you to the Local Authority, as it has legal responsibilities regarding the education or training of 13 – 19 year olds.

This information enables it to provide youth support services, post-16 education and training services, and careers advisors.

Your parents / carers, or you, once you're 16, can contact our Data Protection Officer to ask us to only pass your name, address and date of birth to the appropriate Local Authority.

Transferring data Internationally:

Where we share data with an organisation that is based outside the UK, we will protect your data by following data protection law.

Your rights:

How to access personally information we hold about you:

You can find out if we hold any information about you, and how we use it, by making a “subject access request”, if we judge that you can properly understand your rights and what they mean.

If we do hold information about you, we will:

- Give you a description of it.
- Tell you why we are holding and using it, and how long we will keep it for.
- Explain where we got it from, if not from you or your parents / carers.

- Let you know if we are using your data to make any automated decisions (decisions being taken by a computer or machine, rather than by a person).

You may also ask us to send your personal information to another organisation electronically in certain circumstances.

If you want to make a request, please contact our Data Protection Officer.
